To
J. Anantarami Rao, Esq., B.A.,

Secretary to Govt of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Muzrai Department.

Sir,

When I was Amildar of the Mandya Taluk, I built a "Chatram" there for the convenience of travellers; and when a building was required for the Local Fund Dispensary, I was asked if I could spare the Chatram building for the purpose. As that also was a charitable object, I gave my consent and the dispensary was located in the chatram for a few years, until its removal to a more substantial and suitable building, specially constructed therefor. Afterwards Mr. T. Chokkanna, when Amildar of the Taluk, requested me to permit him to live in it, I allowed him to do so; and as he improved it considerably, it has since then become the residence of the Amildars of the Taluk.

When Mr. Dharmaraja Chetty, was posted as Amildar to Mandya he requested my permission to live in the chatram. In complying with his request I informed him that as I had gifted away the building as a charitable endowment to the Sree Janardaraswami temple at Mandya, he would have to pay a rent of Rs. 6 per mensem (doing the minor repairs at his own cost) and deposit the amount monthly in the Taluk Savings Bank. I believe he has done so.

On Mr. C. V. Krishnaswami Rao succeeding Mr. Dharmaraja Chetty, he also requested my permission to live in the chatram, and I allowed him to do so on the same conditions as I had stipulated with Mr. Dharmaraj Chetty. When after he had been living in the chatram for some time, I requested him to let me know what amount had been deposited in the Savings Bank both by Mr. Dharmaraj raj

Dharmaraj Chetty and himself, he never replied to me, and repeated reminders proved equally unsuccessful in eliciting a reply from him. He has however, acknowledged the receipt of ^a registered letter posted to his address. His successors have occupied the building without even saying "by your leave". ~~Wherefore, I have~~ ^{for reference} herein enclosed ~~a~~ a copy of the correspondence relating to the subject.

Under the above circumstances I find that, if the management of the chatram is kept in my own hands, the object of the charity will be difficult of fulfilment. I have therefore resolved to transfer it to the Muzrai Department, and request you ^k kindly issue orders for the building being taken charge of and for taking steps to recover, as far as possible, the rent due from the several Amildars who have occupied the Chatram commencing from Mr. Dharmaraj Chetty.

As regards the manner in which I desire the charity should be administered by the department, I beg to state as follows:-

1. One-third of the annual rent of the building should be set apart to form a fund for its repair, restoration or improvement.
2. Out of the remainder, Rs.5 should be given as a prize to the boy who passes the Lower Secondary Examination from the Mandya School and obtains the highest number of marks therein, the prize being called the Maha Laksmai prize in memory of my deceased wife.
3. The balance should be divided into two parts in the ratio of 2 to 3, the greater being utilized towards the performance of divine services in the Janardhanaswami temple, such as, Thirumanjanam, Alankaram, Archana and recitation of the vedas, prabhadas, puranas and other sacred works and Prasadas; and the lesser towards doling out either raggi or rice, as circumstances permit, to the poor, the blind and other other disabled persons on the Vaisakha Suddha Pournavami day every year.

I request ~~that~~ you will be pleased to take ^a ~~some~~ personal interest in this matter and make suitable arrangements for the charity being conducted regularly and properly.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

"Sudarsanam"

My Dear Sir,

I have been posted to this Taluk as Amildar and having taken charge am here for the last 10 or 12 days. Immediately on my arrival here, the Shirastadar & others who received me conducted me to a lodging adjacent to the Ry. Station ~~and~~ stating that that had been the quarters of all Amildars who were here before me.

I found the place convenient enough enough and ~~am~~ residing in it just now

On subsequent enquiry I learnt that the house belongs to you. I am ~~sorry~~ to have taken the liberty of ~~occupancy~~ occupying it without your permission.
But I hope you have no objection to my living in it. And if so ~~may~~ may I know what rent & to whom to pay.

I should have written to you four or five days back, but I have been so short of time and have had such incessant knocking about from place to place that I was obliged to put off writing till to day.

May I have the pleasure of an early reply.

Once more begging to be pardoned for not writing to you before taking up my residence in your house.

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

Copy

Your kind letter of the 24th inst^h to hand, I am glad you have occupied my lodge near the Railway Station at Mandya.

At first I intended the lodge to serve as a resting place for travellers. As it was not much frequented, it was subsequently used for locating the ~~the~~ Taluk dispensary. ^{till a separate hospital building was erected} This being a charitable purpose, no rent was demanded from Govt. ~~till a separate hospital building was erected.~~ When Mr. Chokamma was posted to Mandya as Amildar, he, at his own cost, got the building repaired & considerably

Extended it. At his recommendation and suggestion, I have made up my mind to give away in charity. any rent the building might fetch to the Janardana Swamy temple at Mandya.

I have not the least objection to your occupying the building paying a rent of six rupees per month. May I ask you to hold ^{with you} the amount ~~with you~~ thus paid till called for or invest the same in the Govt. Savings Bank in the name of the temple.

C. H. J.

Further, I trust you will kindly execute at your own cost any slight repairs the building might ^{occasionally} conveniently need, as I wish that the entire rent the building might fetch should go to the temple.

I intend visiting Mysore before long when I hope to meet you at Mandya.

Hoping that the lodge will be found convenient and wishing your career in my old Taluk may be a prosperous one.

Maudslayi.

Sir,

I hope I have not presumed too much in having occupied your house in this place, in anticipation of your consent. Especially as you allowed Mr Dharmaraj Chetty and his predecessor to occupy the house, I conclude you could have no objection in regard to my occupancy and earnestly hope you will extend your kind permission. I am, Sir, have not got into the house without your express permission, if it had not been that my things had been moved into the house, during my absence and before I ever took charge of the Taluk. From what I learn I believe it is your expressed desire that the rent of the building should be spent in the service of Sri Janar-danaswami's temple here. I do not know what amount I am to pay as rent, and in what service it is to be spent. How about the necessary repairs to the building and the municipal tax on it. Of course I am new to the place and do not wish to be guided by what people here express to be your wish. It is certainly much better I get your order on the subject. Please oblige me with a reply.

Yours truly

Dear Sir,

I have received your letter of the 29th ultimo and am glad you have without wasting time, occupied the lodge built by me

4.

Given over to Sri Janardana Swami of Mandya. By all means you may occupy it as long as you remain at Mandya paying as your predecessor has done, a rent of six rupees per month and executing at your own cost any slight repairs the building might occasionally need. As I desire that the entire rent should go to the temple, the municipal tax which will not be much will also be borne by you. Mr Dharmaraj Chetty has written to me that he would deposit the rent he had to pay in the Govt. Savings Bank at the Taluk Treasury and I request that you also man kindly deposit monthly the rent payable by you and into

- make the same to me.

Hoping ^{that} this will find you well.

Dear Sir,

On the 19th of September last I wrote and requested you to send me an account showing what amount had been deposited by you in the Mandya Taluk Savings Bank on account of house rent due by you from the date you occupied my chattram. I am sorry that I have received no reply from you as yet. May I request you to kindly give me the information now at least.

Yours truly

Sir,

Let me draw your attention to my letter of the 17th Dec 1904 asking you to furnish me with an account of the sums you have from time to time deposited in the Mandya Taluk Savings' Bank on account of the rent due by you for the occupation of my Chattr there. I am surprised that though it is nearly a year since I wrote that letter you have not had the courtesy even to acknowledge it.

receipt of it not to speak of reply thereto. I am sorry to have to point out that you have been studiously putting off writing to me. In these circumstances, I am sorry you have obliged me to write to you this rather stiff letter. Unless you acknowledge the receipt of this letter and furnish me with the information I want I shall feel justified in presuming that you have not deposited any money as desired, and in taking steps to recover the amount due by you.
I hope however that you will not allow matters to that push and do the needful within a reasonable time.

With reference to his Application No. 2502, dated 11th December 1907, praying that the chattram built by him at mandya may be taken over under Muzrei management, and the rents realised therefrom utilised for certain charitable purposes, Mr. N. Narasimamengar, Retired Sub Division Officer Sagar, is informed that the rents from the said building being of a fluctuating and uncertain character, the Govt are unable to undertake the conduct of the charities stipulated by him. If, however, an endowment ^{is made} either in the shape of land or cash ~~is made~~, yielding
